Waterhorse Press LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. 244 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. When a hard fall from a tall horse landed Mary T. Wagner then a freelance writer and a soccer mom with four young children in a body cast for three months with a broken back, she didn't take it as a sign to ease back on the throttle. Instead, she changed careers, went to law school, took a job as a criminal prosecutor, and bought her first pair of spike heels. And THEN she started writing again. More than a dozen national and regional writing awards later, Wagner has compiled this best of collection of her inspiring and empowering essays from her first three books, and added a few more for good measure. Wagner's earlier books, Running with Stilettoes, Heck on Heels and Fabulous in Flats, earned recognition for humor, inspiration and memoir, and their kudos included both an Indie Excellence Award and a silver IPPY. Two were finalists in ForeWord Reviews Book of the Year Awards. Her legal experience has been similarly eclectic, ranging from handling speeding tickets to arguing cases before the Wisconsin Supreme Court sometimes in the same week! In essays ranging widely from Turbo Dating the Year in Review to Riding Pillion, The Limoncello Diaries and Angels in the Snow, Wagner's signature writing style combines humor, insight, and grace under pressure. Whether reflecting on subjects as diverse as motherhood, the view from the back of a Harley, the impending loss of a parent or the therapeutic effects of a post-divorce bonfire, Wagner's inspiring and empowering essays resonate with universal experiences of love, life and reinvention. A must-read for any woman who's asked herself is there at least one more dream I can reach for and then answered YES!! This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may...
