January Third O little feet! that such long years Must wander on through hopes and fears, Must ache and bleed beneath your load; I, nearer to the wayside inn Where toil shall cease and rest begin, Am weary, thinking of your road! Weariness. January Fourth Ah, how skilful grows the hand That obeyeth Love s command! It is the heart, and not the brain, That to the highest doth attain, And he who followeth Love s behest Far exceedeth all the rest! The Building of the Ship.
January Fifth Be noble in every thought And in every deed! Let not the illusion of thy senses Betray thee to deadly offences. Be strong! be good! be pure! The right only shall endure, All things else are but false pretences. The Golden Legend. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
