April Rain Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 288 pages. In Improbable, a story of love and coming of age, readers get to watch Gemma and Jeremy grow up and become a power couple. Undeniably riveting and sexy, readers will never see certain twists or turns coming. She is a lingerie model, one that fuels the dreams of millions of men the world over. Second generation Hollywood, she becomes a successful actress and a chart-topping movie producer. Her name is Gemma Janelle, and rumor has it that three influential men are deeply in love with her. This is her story. He is her sexy. With a French accent and a fiefdom fit for a king, he alone is the heir to two fortunes. He is Jeremy Baptiste Harden. Brooding and often filled with angst, he is the man atop Gemma's A-list. Yet there are times when he would rather not love her. He is also sick of seeing her likeness in the tabloids with other men, but he remains a slave to his heart. She all but clawed her way out of a dark past; now she wants to live in the light, the spotlight to be exact. However, Gemma Janelle occupies that spot. Fresh from the backwoods, bottled-blond Ashlee is nobody's bimbo. Boobtacular and determined, she vows to break Jeremy away from that black chick Gemma. Then Ashlee will get everything she has ever dreamed of, right. See how feelings can become twisted and thereby take a wrong turn or two. This is no kids book! If you're an adult reader who loves a story that is layered, a story that builds to a crescendo and arrives at an unforeseen conclusion, this is the story for you. If you like a little surprise every now and again, if you want sensual, and tawdry,...
