Forgotten Books, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Roll of New Hampshire Soldiers at the Battle of Bennington, August 16, 1777 New Hampshire, one of the thirteen original States, contains only square miles. One hundred and fifty-two years had come and gone since the first settlement at Dover Neck. The hardy pioneers and their descendants, poor in this world s goods, but in energy and self reliance the equal of the same number of people on the face of the earth, had pushed on into the wilder ness, contending at every step, with savage Indians and wild beasts. When the Revolutionary war commenced, in 1775, there were within its borders inhabitants. In April, 1775, when the British soldiers held Boston, New Hampshire men were in the ranks under the command of Stark, Reed, Prescott, and others; and on June 17, names appear on the rolls as taking part in the battle of Bunker Hill, 48 of them consecrating with their lives the ground on which the monument stands, the proudest emblem of Massachusetts on her soil. The battle of Bennington, fought August 16, 1777, under the command of General...
