LETTER FROM THE SECRETARY OF WAR (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Letter From the Secretary of War Sm: I had the honor to transmit by Mr. Hugh Stannard, a short account of a battle with the enemy at Bethel Bridge, on the 10th. This was written on the field, and I had not then had time to ascertain the number of killed and wounded on the other side. I think I reported ten killed and many wounded. I have now to report that eighteen dead were found on the field, and I learn from reliable citizens living on the road, that many dead as well as a. Great many wounded were carried, in wagons, to Hampton. I think I can safely report their loss at from 25 to 30 killed, and 150 wounded. I understand the enemy acknowledge 175 killed and wounded. It is a source of great gratification to me to be able to say that our own loss, as far as heard from, was only one killed and seven wounded - but too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the heroic soldier whom we lost. He was one of four who volunteered to set fire to a house in our front which was thought to afford protection to our enemy - and, advancing alone between the two fires, he fell midway, pierced in the forehead by a musket ball. Henry L. Wyatt is the name of this brave soldier, and devoted patriot. He was a member of the brave and gallant North Carolina Regiment. I omitted to mention in my hurried dispatch of the tenth, the name of Capt. Jones, of Cavalry, who rendered important service before and during the battle. I regret to say that one of his videttes...
