Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A wise person once said that the truth is stranger than fiction, and it is. For things happen in the real world that match and even exceed the weirdness of the tales brought to us by writer of fictitious tales of disbelief and horror. The accounts you will read about have no known causes, nor any known answers, thus, they are classified as unknowns. The unknown can be incredibly frightening. It can also be incredibly interesting. The unknown is full of mysteries and mysterious people, places, things and events that we would be hard pressed to imagine ever having existed. From incredible people with incredible abilities to mysterious monsters and supernatural happenings, odd things abound in the unknown. In this book you will read about the restless dead. Corpses and coffins that had an odd habit of wandering around, and even some that came back to life! You will read of weird dwellings that have ghostly markings on them that cannot be removed, and others that oozed water, fire and even human blood! You will see that the teleportation of people, cars and planes had actually taken place. That it has come to pass on many occasions where people and planes disappeared right before the eyes of shocked onlookers. We will hear of frightening happenings like day turning to night, planes that land having been ravaged by unknown supernatural forces. We will hear about weird prehistoric artifacts that have n business even existing. In the pages ahead we will meet people who breathed fire, attracted metal like magnets, gave off electrical shocks like a live wire, who could perform great feats of strength, people with telepathy, that receive...
