Ideal for teachers without dance training as well as for dance educators, the book takes a student-directed approach--you provide the students clear directions, and they create their own projects. Dance Units for Middle School provides you with everything you need to facilitate dance units: -Teacher scripts to direct your students work and to increase your comfort level -Strategies for facilitating student dance and making it fun -A DVD with 77 reproducibles and video demonstrations of all skills -A music CD that saves you time in locating appropriate music to accompany lessons and student work -Three complete dance units for grades 6 through 8 (improvisation, dance for athletes, and jazz dance, respectively) Each unit includes eight or nine age-appropriate lessons, rubrics, objectives, warm-ups, information on physical and cognitive development, and warm-ups. Your students follow along as they watch the video clips, demonstrating the skills and combinations that they are learning on the video. With the detailed instruction, the teacher scripts, the handouts, the music,...
