Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from County Citizens Tax Councils in Florida: A Review of Reports From Pensacola to Key West This review Of the reports which came from all over Florida is divided into three parts. Part I introduces the subject Of the report, summarizes the highlights Of the 51 county reports, and explains the history Of the county citizens tax councils. In Part II the numerous short-answer questions covered by the county reports are analyzed. These are considered in the order Of schools, county general government, county assessed valuation, municipalities, and revenue sources. Finally, 12 ques tions from these categories are selected for further treatment in order to provide more details On these questions and SO that the method Of analyzing all Of the questions is made clear. Part III Of the state-wide report is devoted to a county-by county statement Of the chief problems and recommendations underlined by the county citizens tax councils. This is a supple mentary section, not a recapitulation Of the subjects already digested in Part II. The point Of view Of each county council is separately expressed in very much the same terms that the original reports used. The important comments and suggestions made by the county councils form the basis for the generalization in the introduction to Part III but they could not be reduced to tabular form. These county-by-county statements Should be considered in connection with the tables Of Part II. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
