Excerpt: .his saffron robe gives him a position the best possible for the acceptance of the message he brings. Granted the same man and message he would assuredly under any circumstances have won the heart of the Indian Christian Church, but being a true Sadhu in appearance as well as in spirit has added enormously to his influence and power. Perhaps nothing has proved more wonderful to Christians everywhere than the humility and simplicity of the Sadhu s spirit, and no one is more filled with wonder than himself when crowds linger about him just to look at his face. But the most remarkable results of his being a Sadhu are apparent in his life and work amongst non-Christians. This he looks upon as his sworn task. Naturally his sadhu s robes gain him an entrance to places and to people as nothing else could. Often in the course of his pilgrimages from place to place he comes across unusual types of Indian sadhus, and it has been his privilege to discover to the world a marvellous movement towards Christianity amongst the most deeply religious men of India. The Rev. J. J. Johnson, of the Church Missionary Society, who died in 1918, was one of the finest Sanskrit scholars in India. During the latter part of his life, he was set apart by his Society for a work he was magnificently fitted for amongst the pandits and learned classes throughout India. The story of this...
