Brand New Book. ONE-SENTENCE DESCRIPTION This is a translation of an expansive volume of poetry by an award winning Chilean poet who has been compared to Pablo Neruda. CATEGORY Poetry/translation AUDIENCE Primary: Readers of poetry in English worldwide, especially those interested in Latin American literature and history in general. Secondary: University faculty teaching poetry, Latin American literature, and 21st century literature in general, along with faculty teaching Spanish and translation. PURPOSE AND NEED Educated readers worldwide are hungry to expand their cultural vision. In addition, there s a resurgence of interest in poetry, and poetry in translation, in our times, due to an increasingly global world, where we deeply need to understand the overall trajectory of the past 500 years of the planet, stretching back to the explosion of exploration from Europe to conquer and colonize much of the rest of the planet. This is the journey that Christian Formoso s The Most Beautiful Cemetery in Chile takes us on. Centered in a single locale--the Strait of Magellan in Tierra...
