Templar. 1 Cloth(s), 2011. hard. Book Condition: New. The world of Charles Dickens both in his stories and in the real world of Victorian England are vividly depicted in this scrapbook biography for readers 9 and up and Dickens fans of all ages."This large-format volume from the Historical Notebook series introduces Charles Dickens and his London. Each double-page spread explores one subject, such as family life, theater, or workhouses, and all have small pages that lift, unfold, or pull out. Nearly every topic is paired with one of the novels and includes a small facsimile of the book jacket, which can be lifted to reveal a short synopsis of the plot. Paragraphs of information are surrounded by illustrations, including period photos, drawings, engravings, and maps. A visually rich introduction to Dickens and his world."Booklist 30.
