Very well answered. That was just it. They believed in Christ as a great prophet, but not as the Messiah--God and man, who could do all things; and so they lost all hope now. But you see how kindly and gently Jesus spoke to the poor father. Now we shall hear about their going to the house. And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. And he eometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly (Mark v. 37, 38). What does a tumult mean, mamma? It means a great noise and bustle. There was a great sound of weeping and wailing in Jairus house. In these countries, as soon as any person dies, the hired mourners are sent for--that is, a set of people who are just paid for weeping and making loud lamentations. Do they cry when they are not sorry, mamma? Yes, though they never saw or heard of the person who died before. What a very strange thing! It does seem very strange to us; but it is the custom there, and the greater a person is, the more mourners will be sent for. So, as Jairus was a...
