Overview Earths Survivors America the Dead series takes an apocalyptic look at a world in ruins. The governments are gone. The police, the military. The United States is no more. The dead are rising. Becoming smarter, learning from their mistakes. Our Group of survivors take a stand in a suburb of New York City called Old Town. Those that make it eventually find their way out of the city looking for a place to start over again. A place where they can began to put their lives in order once more. . . We were down along the river checking over some of the old buildings that perched on the cliffs high above the water. Summer was coming on full and we knew we had to get moving, get out of this dead city. We had half the country to cross and find a place before winter came back around again. I was thinking back to March. Just two months ago but the world was still the world. And for the next little while there, we didnt even know about...
