The story of Connor and Renee as they fight through curses and magic to keep the bonds of their love strong. A mage curses Renee in a paralyzing manner where she can see the world but cannot move of her own free will. Connor searches for a way to end the curse and ends up paralyzed from the waist down. The trials of their life test them in ways unimaginable. Through friendship and perseverance, they find that love is stronger than any other magic. BOOK TWO: Friendships of Stone. This is the story of Matthew and Ben, two young boys growing up in the city of Three Rivers. They find themselves thrust into the middle of finding a kidnapped friend, and it takes all their effort to save her. Along the way, they enlist the aid of the ducal militia, the city guard, and two mages. Ben encounters a demon who eventually, though unwilling, helps the boy. In the end, they find themselves up in front of the Duke himself.
