

I Need an Exorcism (Paperback)

By Polly Tiller

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After seeing Woodstock on the telly in 1969, when I was fifteen, thought I wanted to be a hippy. Two years later I met Bob at the off-licence whilst buying ten Number Six (cigarettes). He looks like a hippy with his round glasses and Ban the Bomb medallion. Twelve years later I am walking over the road to the public phone box. Luckily the phone directory was there. Ringing the solicitor at the top of the list in the Yellow Pages I tell the receptionist I want to divorce my husband. That winter I get taken away in a cold police van after going beserk. Not knowing if I was going to the police cells, my relief was palpable when the two policemen stop the van in town and say There is the Womens Refuge. They are expecting you. Three months later Bob gives me the tenancy of our council house and care of our two daughters. The divorce is complete. My downward spiral continues until the landlord of the local pub bars me. A black kitten brings a calming influence into...
