THE CRASH BETWEEN HEAVEN AND HELL: CELESTIAL ONSLAUGHT (PAPERBACK)

Outskirts Press, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It happened in waves. The first wave, the rapture, was predicted by the Bible, but was not expected. In the rapture, a quarter of the population disappeared like they had never existed. Chaos ensued throughout the world causing the second wave. Every nation pointed a finger to another for the disappearances, and soon for other worldly problems. Threats were made, and then, the bombs went off. Now that the world is changed the last wave, the crash, has started. The creatures that once formed myths and legends have crawled up from the depths of hell and have begun to roam every continent and every ocean. Heaven and hell alike have cast down their armies onto the earth to rain terror upon each other. In the aftermath of the world's destruction, seven unlikely strangers are forced together in an attempt to survive and renew what was lost. Galileo, a former Vegas mob boss is handsome, intelligent, born to lead, and completely content with the life he has made in this new world until he meets Rayne, a woman with deadly skills and a sharp tongue. Rayne is determined to save her country from the invading demon hordes and will do anything it takes, including, searching for a mythical undead army of super soldiers. Across the country, Kalio, an angel of the Roman order, Father Grey, a former Catholic priest, and Jonas, his son have their orders to save the Pure-hearts, the only pure humans left on earth. Yet, when a mission goes awry, their lives become the ones in jeopardy, and running becomes the only solution. Vall, a former harbor master, is trying to live a normal, peaceful life with his family until a...
