

The Cyrus Syndrome (Paperback)

By Arley Owens Jr

Shorty Mae Productions, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Darius Darkfire has been told by his mother since birth that he s a direct descendant of Cyrus the Great who ruled over the ancient Persian Empire conquered by Alexander some years after the monarch died in five-twenty-nine BC. A ring purported to have been given to the king by a prophet has been passed down through the generations, ceremoniously bestowed every seventy years on the oldest child of the one possessing it at the time. Never to be worn except by Christ at His Second Coming, the ring must be kept in a container chosen by the recipient at the ceremony of presentation. Believing it to be only a legend, Darius-in the presence of ten friends as required by tradition-reluctantly accepts the ring from his mom, who inherited it when her mother died. A senior at Southern Methodist University, he stashes the heirloom and forgets all about it. Nine years later he falls in love with a woman named Robyn Tuscany and proposes. His mother embarrasses him by telling his fiance about the ring and Robyn soon becomes obsessed...
