What would you do if you ran into your high school sweetheart and the passion flared up all these years later, just as you are getting married to someone else Katie and Brandon were in love as teens, before life sent them their separate ways. Brandon finds her again, but she's engaged to a wealthy and caring man. Katie spends a sizzling night with Brandon, agrees to leave her fiancé for him - then changes her mind. When Brandon storms her wedding, Katie is torn. Will she choose the man she knows is the love of her life, or play it safe Can she ever go back to Taylor Park, not just the place where she had her first date with Brandon, but the ideals of her youth Or is she making the worst mistake of her life Meet Me at Taylor Park is the story of a second chance at first love. Inspired by a true story, this love story explores the nature of regret, the fire of passion and the tenacity of unconditional love. Excerpt: Katie felt her defenses cave in. She started to tremble. What happened to us Her face was now contorted as she quivered. She lowered her head, refusing to look at Brandon. When she looked back up, her cheeks were a deep scarlet. Her eyes were full of passion. Her mouth was a thin line. Brandon took this as a sign to keep advancing. Putting both hands on her shoulders, he gently pinned her against the walls. He felt and heard her heartbeat, beating rapidly...
