Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 144 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Firing Up Imagination, Philip J. Taylor reveals his straightforward experiential and research-based ways to finding and bringing back healthy lifestyles for you and your family. He shares with you possibilities to instill soul-enriching programs to select new menus for dealing with addictions, abuse, consumerism, and the onslaughts on you and your child in corporate drives to commercialize your child's precious years enjoying a positive memorable and carefree time in life by presenting opportunities for making more conscious parental examples and influences come to bear on creative guidance for children. Who's controlling your purse strings? Philip J. Taylor proposes avenues for you to travel on in your search for integrity, savings, and ultimate financial independence to provide clear role modelling for your child's capabilities to plan and budget carefully for the necessities of life and take care of conserving a variety of their material and moral resources. While claiming no magic pills, Philip J. Taylor does work with you to find common starting points to focus attention with practical ideas and activities which go to the heart of problems associated with getting into the debt trap. Philip J. Taylor sensitively injects food for thought in putting solutions with your help into your child's hands. Using Nature, humour, reading, the media, games, song, values clarification, respect for elders and everyone, environmental health, healing AIDS/HIV, family budgeting as means to get to greater family autonomy, Philip J. Taylor appeals to your reason and emotions that help you get results that bring more freedom of choice to your lifestyle. Giving backbone to this book, Philip J. Taylor offers room to pause and consider the place of power,...
