By Morapeli Sixishe

Trafford Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The story of a man who goes hunting with his dog. During their hunt, the man shoots and kills a duck. Upon their return from the hunt, they encounter a mysterious cave which the man and his dog are mysteriously sucked into. When he wakes up after being sucked into the cave, he finds himself in a city where the citizens are various kinds of animals. He wakes up in chains and is thrown in jail. To top it all, he is being charged by the animal court for the murder of the duck he killed in the real world. A lion judge, an elephant prosecutor, a pit bull defence lawyer, and a jury of twelve different types of animals. His dog and the duck's duckling are among the witness list. In the centre of it all is the man being accused of murder, punishable by hanging. This is the new and mysterious reality he has to deal with.
