

Crazy Ladies on a Train (Paperback)

By Kathryn Hackett Bales

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A group of pit bull owners, who became friends via the internet, take their dogs on a cross country tour to introduce people to the correct temperament of a trained and properly socialized pit bull. Along the way, they cross paths with a serial killer who turns out to be a member of their group, a mysterious swamp creature, escaped convicts, dogs missing in the desert, and more action that will keep the reader on the edge of their seat. The rowdy, comedic actions of the dogs will have one laughing until it hurts. Anyone who has ever lived with a terrier of any breed will recognize their ability to find trouble where none exists. This is book two, in a series of four, with all proceeds going to Pit Bull Rescue Central. PBRC is a nationwide organization of volunteers that uses 100% of all donations to help pit bulls and their owners who are undergoing an emergency situation.
