Reasons for Addressing His Majesty to Invite Into England Their Highnesses, the Electress Dowager and the Electoral Prince of Hanover: And Likewise, II. Reasons for Attaining and Abjuring the Pretended Prince of Wales, and All Others Pretending Any Claim, Right, or Title From the Late King James and Queen Mary; With Arguments for Making a Vigorous War Against France. The Prime is but the Third in this Family, and tho by Reason of his Youth we would gladly have the Care of his Education, yet it was never meant by this that the Electress should not come into England as first of the Line; nor ought the Prime himself be without such an Intruder as will influence him more than all the World besides. Her great Willom and Knowledge are eonfult and proclaim'd all over Europe. She has had a Hand already in forming the Manners and Minds of several Princes of both Sexes, the most celebrated for all sorts of Virtues and Endowments, whereof the present Electress her Son, and the...
