Just to the north of Edinburgh lies Dunfermline, an ancient capital of Scotland, famous both for its Abbey, and as the birthplace of Andrew Carnegie. In more recent times, Dunfermline has been the centre of operations for Liberty Church, which has flourished there since its formation in 1979. This book has emerged from amongst the people of that Church. It began its life as the membership course for those considering joining Liberty Church. Into Liberty contains a blending of the basics of Christianity with practical biblical principles for living as part of a Christian community, written in a direct and straightforward style. The result is a powerful primer on the Christian life. Every follower of Jesus will benefit from reading it.
