This book is a memoir  An innocent child named Brock Talon longs for the Jehovah s Witness paradise, but in time finds it isn t all it s cracked up to be. With Armageddon ever looming, his life becomes an endless stream of restrictions and mandated works, harsh discipline and conditional relationships. Join Brock s struggle with apostasy and persecution, sanctioned abuse and God-like elders. Learn with him about his faith s built-in sexual dysfunction and an eerily business-like design, as well as its dubious origin, repeated failed prophecy, fixation on demons, and the curious anointed ones. Will Brock ignore his eye-opening discoveries, or will he act and lose everything? This story, both humorous and tragic, is about one man s personal pilgrimage through the dystopian world of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society. Along with millions like him, will Brock be able to safely make his escape from paradise?.
