Not illustrated. 1914 Excerpt: . have also exemption from annual dues of $10 for each $1000 of stock or bonds ownd. 74c Stockholders tables The finest new window tables overlooking the lake are reservd for stockholding life members who have furnisht capital by buying preferd stock or bonds. Tables not yet assignd to patrons or fellows when the house opens for summer will be assignd to other life members. 75 Advantage of life membership By the new rule taking effect for 1910, dues of members have been reduced and some for associates increast so that annual members and associates both have exactly the same prices, discounts and dues. No discount whatever is allowd to those whose dues are unpaid. In addition to members discounts, stockholding life members have an extra 10 on all club bills (rooms, table, laundry, boats, driving, autos, golf, etc.), the total discounts not to exceed in any kalendar year 4 (in addition to the 6 paid Sep. 1 in cash) on the amount of stock ownd and 1 more in exemption from annual dues. This discount applies during the life of either husband or wife. On the deth of both there is no farther return for the $300 life fees; but on preferd stock the 6 is always paid, whoever the owner, but the extra 4 is allowd only to an owner who is also elected a club member. Thus stockholders who contribute to working capital justly have on every club bill 10 lower prices (not...
