Hyde, proudly present Volume 3 of Haunted Skies (revised) - replacing one of six earlier volumes, removed from sale by our ex-publisher following legal proceedings - covering the period 1971-1975, which are now in colour and updated to include sightings from the Unites States. We felt privileged that Howard Hughes, of the Unexplained Radio podcasts, had agreed to submit a foreword. Howard Hughes: (extract) At the end of the day - in the absence of revelation or disclosure - there is only belief. Either you believe there is something out there or you don t, and the process of making a decision is assisted by evidence. Perhaps it s something you ve seen or something you ve been told. It s unlikely, but it might be something you read in a tabloid newspaper. Maybe you have read a book on the subject. Maybe you think you have been abducted by the Greys . Evidence is the key to belief or dismissal. The Haunted Skies series of books is the best researched series of...
