Last year we endeavored to present a broad picture of what was being done by the Federal Government in the field of planning, housing, land-uses, including rural land problems; parks and forests, together with a resume of state planning activities. The Joint Planning Conference in 1935 devoted its sessions to the subject: Must American Cities Decay? and the proceedings of the conference, therefore, formed the section presented in former years, entitled In the Cities and Towns. At the Cincinnati planning conference in 1935, a merger of the National Conference on City Planning and the American Civic Association was voted. On July 1, 1935, an organization meeting of the new Board of Directors was held in Washington and the charter of the American Civic Association, an...

Reviews

It is fantastic and great. It is written in easy words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just delighted to explain how this is actually the best book I have got read through during my individual life and might be the finest publication for ever.

-- Prof. Murl Shanahan DDS

This publication is really gripping and exciting. It really is basic but unexpected situations in the 50 % in the book. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Prof. Salvador Lynch
