The state superintendent may appoint a deputy, who shall have the same powers as the state superintendent. Such deputy shall receive a salary of eighteen hundred dollars per annum, payable in the same manner as other state officers are paid. He shall be at all times subject to removal at the pleasure of the state superintendent. The state superintendent may also appoint additional deputies from time to time to serve as sealers of weights and measures at the request of counties, as provided in section sixteen of this act. Such deputies when actually employed shall be paid at the rate of one hundred and fifty dollars per month by the county engaging their services and not by the state. They also shall receive their actual traveling expenses from such county. [1915 Amendment.] Traveling and office expenses. Sec. 4. The state superintendent and his deputy shall each be allowed their actual traveling expenses, to be approved by the state board of control in the same...
