NemonikThinking.Org, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Humanity s survival is threatened by global problems such as overpopulation, dwindling resources, pollution, climate change, and warfare. Those problems are manmade and, therefore, there must be a perpetrator. Nevertheless, we should stop blaming corrupt politicians, uncaring industrial-ists, greedy investors, passionate greenies, and warmongers. Like you and I, those scapegoats are just the products of our failing educational system. It fails, because it spreads unintentionally a failing way of thinking. The educational system conditions students with pass-fail grading to maximize the probability of winning at all cost. Winning is defeating oppo-nents in competition. Therefore, conventional thinking is conflict oriented, which fosters aggression, control, effort, and force. The conditioned compulsion to win inhibits the truth and, therefore, corrupts that way of thinking. The educational failure is individually maintained by cognitive dissonance and collectively by groupthink. As a result, the educational system produces incompetent leaders and rebellious followers. Nemonik thinking is the solution, because it aims for success, rather than winning. Success is to obtain what you seek and to escape what you suffer. Therefore, nemonik thinking is goal oriented, which fosters freedom, alignment, compassion, allies, and win-win strategies. You might be the best thinker in the world, but only nemonik thinking could make you the smartest thinker you can be. This manuscript is a revised extract of my book Think Smarter with Nemonik Thinking (A. Schade, 2016).
