The Tailor's Life

By A Book by Me, Rachel Lagerstam

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Molly Dietmeier (illustrator). 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Leo Israel Samuel (nickname Ezriel Leib) was born in Cherna, Czechoslovakia and raised in a Jewish home. He was the son and grandson of rabbis. His father owned thousands of acres of forest. His town had thousands of Jewish people, and he attended religious school (Catholic) like so many of his Jewish friends. A smart boy, Leo learned how to be a tailor - to make and alter men's suits. This trade would one day save his life. When the Nazis invaded Czechoslovakia, they began to terrorize the Jewish people. Some were forced to dig long trenches or pits, not realizing they were digging their own graves. The Nazis lined them up and shot until all were dead and fell into the pit. Leo was a smart boy; he jumped in the pit without being shot and lay still, praying someone would come to help him out. By a miracle he survived. When his cousin carried him out of the pit, he asked, How can I ever repay you? His cousin suggested that after...
