Before I Forget My Life

By Seeni Seeni

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 272 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. This book, Before I forget is about one womans journey from a developing country into the big, wide world. Inspired by her parents, she soon developed an interest in education and learning. She has made a conscious effort to systematically log her journey from the beginning and has written her account using documents of her travel experience and learning throughout life. Born to an elite family, yet the author believed that hard work contributed to some extent for achievement and success. Her journey takes her from the hills and valleys of Bandarawela Sri Lanka to other lands of exquisite beauty and those of extreme poverty. Her writing enables the common man to appreciate the socio-economic and cultural aspects of the populations in these countries. She presents an unbiased perception of the world around her. Taking every opportunity both in her profession and in her leisure activities, it is apparent that she has made full use of these. This book demonstrates the authors joy in sharing experiences. It brings home the value of education, life-long learning and sustained motivation despite difficulties. The author strengthens the fact that family...
