Sibanda Publishing, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .People have very strange ideas about prayer. Many feel that prayer is a certain sound that must terrify the devil or cause God to drop what ever he is doing and attend to them. Some think it should be in Shakespearean English, rich in theological terminology very often spoken very loudly and with a measure of authority. Some believe that the more one shouts in prayer the quicker God will respond to them. Others feel that one should use the Old King James language of thy son prayeth, Lord! Others feel prayer is something that takes place in a certain place or with a certain posture. Others think you must wear something, cover your head, kneel down, carry a rod, or something that signifies seriousness. But none of these things are requirements for true prayer. The only helpful thing in prayer is what David calls, a broken spirit: a broken and contrite heart (Psalm 51:17). Nothing outside the heart can influence God, not even praying with a Bible on your heart! Prayer has to come from a sincere heart and be in line with God s will. James puts it this way, in The Message Version of the Bible: The prayer of a person living right with God is something powerful to be reckoned with (James 5:16). The New International Version says, The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective. Here we learn that righteousness contributes to answered prayer, even if it is a whisper like Hannah did. In fact, you can sound holy and polished in your prayer presentation but if your heart is not right, you are just making noise for God. Paul calls it, resounding a gong or a...
