

Facing the Population Challenge Wisdom from the Elders

By Marilyn Hempel

Blue Planet United. Paperback. Condition: New. 140 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. This book is for all who have ever pondered the fate of humanity and the biosphere and asked, What can I do? Fifteen elders/giants in the field of human population and development share their vision of a more just, peaceful and sustainable world. Drawing from many decades of practical experience and deep knowledge, they trace the contours of rapid population growth, its socioeconomic and environmental challenges, and the lessons they have learned in dealing with these challenges. They go on to lay out concrete actions that can move our civilization forward to a future of wanted children, empowered women, and an economy that works within restored ecosystems. Features chapters by Dr. Albert A. Bartlett, Malcolm Potts, Donald A. Collins, David Poindexter, William N. Ryerson, Linn Duval Harwell, Sarah G. Epstein, Robert Gillespie, Martha Campbell, Lester R. Brown, Lindsey Grant, David Pimentel and Marcia Pimentel, Paul R. Ehrlich and Anne H. Ehrlich. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN.
