ARCHITECTURE AT THE EDGE OF EVERYTHING ELSE (HARDBACK)

MIT Press Ltd, United States, 2010. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book An examination of architecture as it comes in contact with other disciplines in the contemporary world. Combining formal argument with informal conversations and design proposals, Architecture at the Edge of Everything Else offers creative ideas for thinking and acting architecture differently. What makes the book unique (apart from its lively graphic format) is the freshness of its voices--young architects and emerging practitioners who for the...
