Not illustrated. 1917 Excerpt: .analysis of the maintenance appropriation for each of the institutions to be wholly supported by the state in 1917, 1918 and the corresponding expenditures in 1915, 1916, --all under the following heads: personal services, food supplies, clothing, repairs and equipment, general expenses; E, --Report of the commission on the intangible property tax. His address took up these tables, after a brief introduction which was in part as follows: Gentlemen of the legislature: I have sought this opportunity of presenting to you in detail a complete financial program showing available cash resources on hand January first, 1917; revenue which may reasonably be expected during each of the years, 1917 and 1918, with no change in existing laws; increase of revenue which will be available if certain proposals regarding taxation are enacted into law, and expenditures recommended for all necessary public purposes and for those charitable and educational institutions which have been accustomed to receive aid from the state and which filed their requests with the state auditor on or before the first Monday in December, in accordance with the law. Before proceeding to a discussion of the estimates themselves, allow me to recall briefly to your attention some of the purposes of an executive budget and the resulting rules by which we have been guided. The budget is intended to help the people exercise through their chosen representatives the right to control the public purse, --to determine what work shall be done by the state and how...
