Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: Hebrew . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Pulp Fiction meets Scrubs. When Moses, a miserable aging orderly in a public hospital, started his graveyard shift, he never expected it to be the one that will forever change his world. Yet, the following eight bizarre hours are doing exactly that - thus exposing the terrible secret that he was hiding for 25 years, and pushing him, screaming and cursing, to the secret love of his life. This hilarious book begins with a bang (literally), and then just picks up the pace. It swoops you to the hallucinatory, filthy behind the scenes of an urban hospital, with doctors from hell, nurses who live in hell, hospital thieves, scary hospital urban legends and patients that . Well, have it coming. A minute-by-minute rollercoaster journey from the ER to the morgue, and from painfully funny moments - to heart achingly, touching ones. The book is based on the real life experience of the author, from his time as an orderly who meets his wife exactly the insane way described here. A must read for anyone who considers going to a hospital - or working in one.
