There are so many successful groups of books out there that deal with sex, how to date, and how to arrange a perfect wedding. After those books, the next group you see is those about divorce. There is someone who cares about your relationship and is willing to help you immortalize it by giving you some hints on how to nourish the love after you found it: Emile K. Dhossou. He decided to put in writing the help he has been giving to people around him, so that you also can be a beneficiary of the difference between having sex and making love. He shows you how to nourish the love each and every single day. It s so easy to create a loving environment. However keeping that loving environment is what challenges friends, partners, and couples frequently. Well, you have a remedy for the challenge now. Use it and share it with everyone you care for.
