Excerpt: .one county and the report filed in. another. Suit was brought in the county wherethe debt arose. The defendant disputed the jurisdiction there, by a motion to transfer the case for trial to the county where the report had been filed. This was overruled. Upon the question thus made, the action went to the court of appeals. With respect to jurisdiction, the Code provided. that cases should be tried in the county where the cause of action or some part of it arose. The contention of the plaintiff was, that as the debt had been made in the county where he began his suit, a part of the cause arose there, and. therefore it was well brought. The court, however, held otherwise. In the opinion they say: The statute imposes upon the officers of such a company, as a penalty for a false report,...
