Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Milestone of 1938 We love the broad acres in this beautiful landscape, with the arching elm trees waving their graceful branches high over head, and the extensive meadows stretch ing far and wide to give us ample room. The old and the new buildings are scenes of precious memories that will linger in our minds and be recalled in fond reveries when we are far away. The landmarks are engraved upon our hearts, seeming to cluster about and to be linked with the old milestone.
