Teshuvah is a Hebrew word and corresponding concept which denotes and embodies the act of repentance. Teshuvah entails the two-fold act of turning away from that which defiles the heart, and thereafter returning-to a place of purity of heart. King David s key to returning to a place of purity of heart was that in and through his heart of contrition before the Lord. Follow a very painful biographical sketch of the author, as he shares with brutal honesty his sordid trail of brokenness and subsequent cleansing and restoration. Equally follow the parallel of King David s journey in his profound dealings with God, as beautifully portrayed throughout the Book of Psalms.
