Excerpt: . . . goals to form a more outcome-oriented goal to support the development of disaster resistance in communities and states. FEMA's fiscal year 2002 performance plan also has more descriptive details for each of the outcomes. For example, FEMA outlines a number of mitigation tools, education and outreach activities, and partnership agreements it will pursue to support the development of disaster resistance in communities and states. FEMA plans to coordinate with other federal departments and agencies to identify ways in which their existing programs and new initiatives can support national mitigation goals. FEMA also plans to discuss specific actions for coordinating with other agencies to accomplish these goals. FEMA makes use of trend data, for example, to illustrate the costs FEMA avoids when purchasing new equipment by recycling previously used equipment in support of its goals to operate a logistics program that provides timely and cost effective resources in support of emergency management missions. FEMA added six goals to its fiscal year 2002 performance plan in support of its commitment to the administration's reform goals...
