Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: .the ReView for the past 20 years, and is expected to continue in the general management. Every reader and friend will miss, beyond words, the personality, power, and positive messages of the late editor-in-chief, Dr. Pierson. but we know that the same God who spoke through him can and will speak through others, and the same Holy Spirit that empowered him is ready to empower others. God calls His servants up to higher service, but he raises up others to carry on the work that they have laid down here. The past and the present history of the Review and the needs of the hour indicate that God has still a great purpose and field of service for the MisSionary Review--it may be much larger even than in the past. We earnestly invite the prayers and cooperation of our friends and the friends of missions...
