Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. in 1992 rudolf greger and christoph pauschitz founded their design company. they published a collection of texts under the title integriert entwerfen (german for integrated designing) to express their attitude towards future customers. they explained, what is meant by integrated designing, asked, if there are no more sharks, outlined, how to choose a designer, and what all this has to do with the dynamic philygon. furthermore we learned why writing uncapitalised is consequent and should be understood as a sign, too. in 2012 rudolf greger uses the opportunity of the 20-year jubilee of the design company to concern himself with the texts once again and to take a stand from today s point of view. in 2014 this texts were translated to english. an exciting experiment on the durability of texts. an inspiration for self-reflection.
