Page Publishing, Inc., 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Sherri seems to take an introspective look at her life. The twists and turns she takes seem to have given her an innate sense of her relationship with God and his ability to guide her through all the undertaking she has lived through. This book touches the soul and fiber of your being and awakens the fire inside, allowing one to strive for the best. Through trials and tribulations, Sherri shows how holding on and standing in faith will get anyone to the finish line. Sherri agrees with Robin Roberts, cohost of Good Morning America. Robin tells us that her mom would always remind her that everybody s got something. This quote allowed her to look at families, older, middle-aged, and younger children, and siblings and how everyone is perceived. She noticed that everyone had something going on in their own homes, that quiet dark unspoken drama that takes place that allows one to live in silence and how to keep these private things to oneself. Drama and Satan are one and the same. If you can stand through all the adversities that take place in your life, you can and will succeed. Today, she is still reaching. She has the will of God and encourages everyone to do the same as the power is in his hands. Stand up for God, Stand up for the truth, Live in your truth - No more lies or lying.
