

Four Oaks (Paperback)

By Dr Dan S Gilliam Sr

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Discover Four Oaks, a proud, stately antebellum plantation home and the families who breathed life into it. Taking a new look at an era that reshaped our country, Four Oaks will guide you along a journey of memories, possibly some of your own! Four Oaks Small bubbles rise to the surface of the pond from amphibious creatures, enjoying the cool of the evening. They gather as light foam, near the shore. Traces of an evening fog drift among the Willow trees that hang over the beach of small, smooth pebbles. Up in the Willow branches, tufts of Spanish moss seem almost like decorations, added by some unseen hand. There is only a slight rustling sound in the grass as the couple walks hand-in-hand to pause under the Willows. Springtime has finally arrived and the trees are in full bloom. The path they walk is lined with daffodils and occasional Wisteria. In the receding twilight, the colors are already fading. The couple hardly seems to notice. She is younger, with a slightly-limp blossom from a small, blue wildflower slipped into her...
