Forgotten Books, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Trade and Industries of the Far Eastern Republic The old Czarist Government Which regarded Siberia as a safe and spacious asylum for political offenders, and which was never interested in the proper development of the vast natural resources of the country, has done nothing to enlighten the foreign nations regarding the splendid healthful climate of the country, with its untouched stretches of fir, pine, and birch forests, its numerous rivers and streams and mineral springs, its green meadows catching the traveler s eye for thousands of miles, and last, but not least, its untold wealth buried in the ground. The great opportunities in agriculture, cattle raising, mining, and other industries are known only to a few foreign newspaper men and commercial representa tives and those who have visited the country. The Far Eastern Republic, the present rightful sovereign of the Russian Far East, is sincerely desirous of affording all possible facilities for the application of foreign capital. In the development of the country s wealth. It therefore intends to give its utmost attention to the problem of supplying the busi ness world with available data of the mineral, forest, fishing and other resources of the Republic.
