For Coins, no less than Medals, give a great light to History, in confirming such passages as are true, in settling such as are told after different manners, and in recording such as have been omitted. The truth of which will, I conceive, appear from facts in dispute amongst our Historians, which are now settled and confirmed by the evidence of some of the Coins mentioned in the following Essay. This kind of Study is so confessedly interesting, that many treatises on this subject have been published in several of our neighbouring countries; witness those of Bouteroue Le Blanc, on the French coins, of Thomas Broeder Bircherod, on the Danish,...
