Excerpt from Proceedings of the Alabama State Council of Defense: Held in the Senate Chamber, Montgomery, Alabama, June 1, 1917 Governor Henderson: Ladies and Gentlemen of the State Council of Defense: I am gratified that such a large number have responded at this time to the call of their country. There are quite a number who have been detained at home by reasons which were beyond their control, but they have advised us of their full sympathy and cooperation in the purpose of organization. The State Council of Defense is a volunteer organization and its purpose is to centralize the working forces of the State. Our country has been dependent upon the individual efforts of its citizens, but the time has now come when we must lay aside individualism, except as it may be designated by some central authority, showing and pointing out just how to do the things that will be of greatest aid to his country, and each should hold himself in readiness to take up that work.
