Principles of Setting-Out, Securing and Tooling Operations: For Engineering Students and Apprentices and Students in Manual Training, Metal Work (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Alfred Parr

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Principles of Setting-Out, Securing and Tooling Operations: For Engineering Students and Apprentices and Students in Manual Training, Metal Work The ever-increasing variety of engineering work, and the degree to which specialisation is carried in modern manufacturing processes, renders it more and more difficult for a workman to obtain a full knowledge of his trade, and to no branch of work does this apply more than to setting-out. A man trained in a type-writer factory may acquire a sound knowledge of lig and templet work and die-making, but have very little experience of dealing with castings and forgings of any size on a marking-off table, whereas, a man working in a general repair shop has plenty of work of the latter kind and very little of the former. Moreover, there is an increasing tendency for setting-out to become a separate department, the man who machines an article working to instructions received from the tool room or gauge department. This being so, the need for classes in setting-out is manifest, and this book has arisen out of the Lectures and Workshop Practice instruction...
