Policy Toward Nato Enlargement: Hearing Before the Committee on International Relations, House of Representatives, One Hundred Fourth Congress, Second Session, July 20, 1996 I would tell my friend from California that sometimes minority status can last as long as 40 years, as we could attest. Mr. Chairman, I want to commend you for the introduction of the legislation and for this hearing. It has been a pleasure to work with you and key members of our staff, and indeed, there has been bipartisanship to craft the legislation, so I am pleased to be an original cosponsor with you. I think it is important to emphasize, concerning the legislation that we are not creating new lines across Europe, we are not creating provocative no-man s land areas in the various countries of Eastern and Central Europe.
